Marie Curie consent form – your copy

Thank you for taking the time to share your story, be photographed or filmed.

Marie Curie is committed to raising awareness of the needs of people affected by terminal illness and bereavement by sharing lived experiences through words, photos and video.

This document outlines some information from our consent form and is for you to keep. It also includes contact information if you have any questions or concerns.

Your photo/story/video may be used by Marie Curie for all or any of the following purposes:

- to increase understanding of the issues around terminal illness, end of life care, grief and bereavement
- to promote Marie Curie's work
- to help raise vital funds for Marie Curie to continue offering expert care and support.

This means that your photo, story or video could appear in the following places:

- on Marie Curie's website or social media
- in printed and digital materials about Marie Curie. For example, fundraising appeals, information booklets or an online advert
- in a Marie Curie press release or external publication. For example, a local newspaper or media outlet.

What happens now?

You are fully in control of how your photo/story/video is shared.

From time to time you may be contacted by Marie Curie with opportunities to feature your photo/story/video.

We will never share any part of your story, photo or video publicly without checking with you first.

For more information on how we'll work together and how getting involved helps, take a look at our website: mariecurie.org.uk/get-involved/share-your-story

How is my information stored?

The information you've given us will only be used to contact you about your photo/story/video. We will not share your photo/story/video or pass the personal information you have given to us to any other organisation without your permission. Take a look at our privacy notice which outlines how we keep your information safe: mariecurie.org.uk/privacy

Your participation is voluntary, you can withdraw permission at any time by contacting stories@mariecurie.org.uk. We can stop future use of your photo/story/video, however it may not be possible to remove content that has already been published or distributed.

Your information will be stored on our database for a maximum of five years. Before this time we'll contact you to ask if you'd like to continue sharing your information.

Who can I contact if I have any questions?

The most important thing for us is that you're happy with how your photo/story/video is being shared. If you have any questions or would like to discuss anything further, please speak to your contact at Marie Curie or get in touch via email: stories@mariecurie.org.uk
