

Working together to improve end of life care across London<sup>1</sup>

Pan-London End of Life Alliance<sup>2</sup>

Co-chairs: Dr Jane Collins and John Powell

A social movement – bringing together an integrated collaboration to the EOLC landscape facilitated by an Executive Steering Group including leaders from each of the London-wide networks outlined here – that's working to improve the care and support for terminally ill people and their families in London.

Pan-London End of Life Alliance – Lay Representatives Board

Chair: Brian Andrews

Led by individuals who have experience of caring for someone with a terminal illness the group works in partnership with the Alliance to ensure the needs of terminally ill people and those that support and care for them is at the heart of everything the Alliance does.

London Cancer Alliance (LCA) – Palliative Care Group

Chair: Dr Sarah Cox

To improve the access, experience and outcomes for patients requiring palliative care, irrespective of diagnosis, across West and South London.

London Clinical Network – End of Life Care

Interim Clinical Director: Dr Caroline Stirling

Supports health systems to improve the end of life care-related health outcomes of their local communities by connecting commissioners, providers, professionals, patients and the public across pathways of care sharing best practice and innovation, measuring and benchmarking quality and outcomes, and driving improvement.

PallE8

Co-chairs: Dr Adrian Tookman and Dr Clare Phillips

Provides a forum for clinical leaders of specialist palliative care for adults and children covering North Central, North East London and West Essex.

ADASS London Region – End of Life Care Network

Chair: John Powell

To improve the end of life experience of individuals and their families through an effective social care contribution, with a particular focus on Care Home and domiciliary settings.

London Hospice CEOs group<sup>3</sup>

Chair: Micheal Kerin

Provides a forum for Hospice CEOs to share best practice, discuss pertinent issues and provide regional input towards the national Hospice UK efforts.

Children's Hospice across London

Chair: Peter Ellis

A collaboration of independent children's hospices in London, all of which support life-limited children and their families, working together to improve awareness of, raise funds for and increase access to our services.

1. Groups included here represent key London-wide networks with direct links to the Pan-London End of Life Alliance executive steering group, however are not fully representative of all London-wide networks involved in End of Life care. The Pan-London End of Life Alliance also includes representation from the Healthy London Partnership programmes which facilitates End of Life care remaining prominent within the programmes workstreams.

2. The Pan-London End of Life Alliance is a social movement and does not have formal governance arrangements, where as a number of the London-wide networks represented here have their own separate governance arrangements.

3. It is noted that a separate Executive Clinical Leads in Hospice & Palliative Care (ECLiHP) – London Group also exists which provides a forum for senior clinical leaders engaged in the strategic plans and operational delivery of hospice and palliative care across London.
