

Marie Curie Palliative Care Research Conference held jointly with the Palliative Care Section of the Royal Society of Medicine

Wednesday 17th October 2018

From radical to real: implementing new models of palliative care

- 9.00 am Registration, tea and coffee
- 9.45 am Welcome and introduction
Dr Jane Collins, Chief Executive, Marie Curie and Viv Lucas, President, Palliative Care Section, RSM
- 10.00 am Specialist palliative care at home- multi site evaluation of one model
Professor Bridget Johnston, Florence Nightingale Foundation Professor of Clinical Nursing Practice Research, University of Glasgow and representative from Macmillan Cancer Support
- 10.25 am Question and answer session
- 10.35 am Integrated working – it can work if you really want it to Rebecca Cooper, Director of Palliative Care Services and Lyndsay Carter, Hospice CEO, Norfolk Hospice Tapping House
- 11.00 am Question and answer session
- 11.10 am Tea and coffee break and poster viewing
- 11.40 am Organisational change for person-centred care: early lessons of Buurtzorg experience in Britain
Brendan Martin, Managing Director, Public World and Buurtzorg Britain & Ireland
- 12.15 pm Question and answer session
- 12.25 pm Presentation of Susie Wilkinson award
- 12.35 pm Lunch and poster viewing
- 1.50 pm Lightning oral presentations

Care and support
through terminal illness

| | |
|---------|--|
| | a. Evaluation of a nurse directed beds model of care in a standalone hospice inpatient unit (IPU), Wendy Hills, Director of Nursing and Care Services, Pilgrims Hospice, East Kent |
| 2pm | b. Learning from a new model of end of life care for older people with frailty/multi-morbidities' – the challenges and opportunities for specialist palliative care services, Jan Noble, Service Development and Transformation Lead, St Christopher's Hospice |
| 2.10pm | c. Is it acceptable to use technical monitoring to assess palliative care patients' level of consciousness? A qualitative exploration with patients and relatives, Anna-Maria Krouupa, PhD student, Marie Curie Palliative Care Research Department, UCL |
| 2.20 pm | Developing innovation in palliative care: from the British Hospices to Palliative Care Services to Public Health Programs to Chronic Care Palliative Approach to Compassionate Communities Professor Xavier Gomez-Batiste, Director of the WHO Collaborating Centre, Cátedra de Cures Palliativas/Cátedra de Cuidados Paliativos and Chair of Palliative Care, University of Vic, Spain |
| 3.00 pm | Question and answer session |
| 3.10 pm | Lightning oral presentations d. Designing Dying Well: Toward a new architectural approach of in-patient palliative care environments, Annie Bellamy, PhD candidate, Welsh School of Architecture, Cardiff University |
| 3.20pm | What needs to change to better support carers at end of life? A multi-perspective mixed methods study to identify recommendations for change in organisational structures and processes, Dr Gail Ewing, Senior Research Associate, University of Cambridge |
| 3.30pm | Compassionate neighbours – an innovative model building caring communities, Carly Attridge, Head of Volunteering, St Joseph's Hospice, London |
| 3.40 pm | Presentation of Joanna Mugridge prize |
| 3.55 pm | Debate: Why is it difficult to get new models of care commissioned or implemented? |
| 4.40 pm | Closing remarks |
| 4.45 pm | Close of meeting |

Royal Society of Medicine,
1 Wimpole Street,
London W1G 0AE